Roiland Finds the Winner's Circle Once Again

Way to go Roiland! Here's a horse that just keeps getting better with every start. After his impressive debut victory as seen in last month's newsletter, Roiland came back in an allowance race at Indiana Grand where he came from way off the pace to soar down the stretch, just missing at the wire by a neck. His next start came on opening day at Churchill Downs, where he once again put forth a stellar effort to pick up his second win in three starts. Despite being bumped coming out of the starting gate, Roiland settled in the middle of the pack until it came time to run, and did he ever! He showed the same grit he did in his first two starts, gobbling up tons of ground coming down the lane to get up and win by a neck. Impressive stuff! He paid $58.00 to win and picked up over $47,000 in purse money for his owners and breeders, Jim and Mary Durlacher. Congratulations and best of luck moving forward!
