4th Annual Endeavor Farm Derby Party

The weather may not have been ideal, but nobody let that stop them from having a great time at our 4th annual Endeavor Farm Derby Party on the Thursday night before Oaks. The cuisine was outstanding and included all of the best and most authentic Cajun classics, including crawfish and shrimp prepared by Lennard Taylor, as well as jambalaya and crawfish mac & cheese made by Tommy Walters. We are very grateful for these wonderful chefs to have brought the best of the bayou to Central Kentucky for everyone to enjoy. It was also a great privilege to have the bluegrass band Shades of Grass provide the musical entertainment for the night. They were awesome! Endeavor Farm et al. made a donation to Old Friends in the name of our good friend Steve Andersen (a.k.a. Caveman), founder of Equine Equipment, a company that helps horse farms all over save money via huge discounts on farm equipment and paint. We would also like to thank Claire Nickell who took the time out of her night to take the photos you see below. This is an event that we anticipate every year as a way to show appreciation to all of our friends, clients, vendors, and everyone who helps this farm operate. Thanks to everyone who attended, we'll see you all next year!

Cowboy Culture Earns Graded Stakes Victory

Congratulations to the connections of Cowboy Culture (Quality Road – English Willow, by Smart Strike), who won the Grade 3 Arlington Classic on May 27th. The bay colt was sales prepped at Endeavor Farm for the 2015 Keeneland September yearling sale, where he sold for $100,000. Cowboy Culture was bred in Kentucky by Rhineshire Farm. He now has 4 wins from 6 starts and has earned over $150,000 for his owners, Head of Plains Partners and Cheyenne Stables. Way to go!
