Pluma Breaks Maiden with Ease at Turf Paradise

After knocking at the door many times, Pluma finally broke through the mold and put forth a game effort to get her first win on April 4th at Turf Paradise. She couldn't have looked any more professional, waiting patiently off the pace until getting her cue from jockey Karlo Lopez and off she went. Pluma drew off to a 3 ½ length lead at the top of the stretch and maintained that margin until crossing the wire. The bay daughter of And One for Me and American Patriot was bred by her owner, Barbara Ratcliff's Coal Creek Farm. She was foaled and raised at Endeavor Farm. Congratulations on yet another talented homebred winner for the stable of Coal Creek Farm! And a masterful job by conditioner Vann Belvoir.
