City of Angels Wins a Thriller at Santa Anita

Congratulations to Slugo Racing and Tiger Racing on a gutsy maiden breaking performance by California-bred City of Angels (City of Light - Chicalelee, by Cherokee Run) at Santa Anita on February 23rd. The four-year-old gelding overcame a wide trip the whole way around with a late surge under jockey Armando Ayuso to get up by a head at the wire. City of Angels was switching back to the turf for this race after running second on the dirt in his previous start. Great work by trainer Mike Puype and his team on such a promising start to 2024 for this talented horse. Best of luck next out!

South Central Stables Celebrate Five Different Winners in February

Run Dreaming

Bourbon Day

Cypress Gold

Mischief's Machine

Mi Solution

Yet another month goes by and here we are once again tallying up the winners for Clyde Taylor's South Central Stables. This time we've got five victories, all by different horses! What a streak this stable has been on recently. One very impressive thing that all these winners have in common is that they're all homebreds! They are also all trained by Keith Bourgeois and all raced at Fair Grounds. The first two winners came on the same day on February 8th when both Run Dreaming (Always Dreaming - Misty Run, by Vindication) and Bourbon Day (Race Day - Penrose, by Lemon Drop Kid) crossed the finish line first in their respective races. Next up was another two-winner day on February 13th when Cypress Gold (Goldencents - Penrose, by Lemon Drop Kid) and Mischief's Machine (Into Mischief - Fast Laner, by Mutakddim) were victorious in back-to-back races. Capping off the month was Mi Solution (Real Solution - Mi Isabella, by Twilight Agenda), who ran the best race of his career so far with an impressive allowance win on February 29th. Fantastic work team!

Kartano Back to Doing What He Does Best: Win Races

Hard knocking gelding Kartano (Tamarkuz - One For You, by Dayjur) has gotten right back in his groove with the first score of his six-year-old campaign. Off as the 3/2 favorite at Gulfstream Park on February 28th, Kartano dominated with his typical come from behind fashion. He gave his opponents a glimmer of hope as he sat toward the back of the pack for most of the race, but once he turned for home, he made sure to let the field know that they didn't stand a chance. Paco Lopez steered him clear for a decisive 1 ¼ length margin of victory. Kartano was bred by Coal Creek Farm and was foaled, raised, sales-prepped, and sold by Endeavor Farm. It's great to see him continue to perform so well!
