JUNE 2018

BY KEITH HAAG

It's All Over Now! Foaling Season 2018 is History

Foaling season 2018 is officially in the books! We have been fortunate this year with a very strong foal crop. Foaling season is certainly one of the most exciting times of the year for us here as each new foal is met with heavy anticipation by the farm and their respective owners/breeders. Congratulations to everybody who got to welcome a new foal into this world with us here at Endeavor. The potential that each one of these animals carries along with them, whether they are destined for a sale ring or the racetrack, is what always keeps us coming back for more!

Endeavor Farm currently has a few two-year-olds in the early stages of training at Blackwood Stables just down the road from us. We took a field trip over there to see them work and are excited to see them getting closer to making their racing debuts!

Come Find Me Breaks Maiden at Emerald Downs

What a way to start the year for Come Find Me! The bay filly by First Defence broke her maiden in her three-year-old debut at Emerald Downs on May 6th. She broke sharply on the lead and went gate to wire, cruising home to win easily by a three-and-a-half length margin. She paid $15.60 to win with a final time of 1:05.31 for the five-and-a-half furlong contest. Out of longtime resident And One For Me (by Dayjur), Come Find Me was foaled and raised at Endeavor Farm. We extend the largest of congratulations to the owner and breeder of this talented filly, Barbara Ratcliff's Coal Creek Farm. It's always special to pick up a win with a homebred! We look forward to seeing several more homebreds out of And One For Me hitting the track over the next few years, as she has a two-year-old by Creative Cause, a yearling by Gio Ponti, and a foal by Awesome Patriot... all fillies! Best of luck to Come Find Me and her connections this year.
