Una Palabra Wins the Arizona Oaks for Coal Creek Farm

Congratulations to Barbara and Rick Ratcliff’s Coal Creek Farm, who won the $80,000 Arizona Oaks at Turf Paradise on March 11th with their homebred Una Palabra (McCraken – One for You, by Dayjur). She put forth a gutsy effort and never gave up, besting her rival in a stretch duel to prevail by a neck. The victory marks two wins and two places in four lifetime starts, and it makes her the first black type winner to be represented by her sire, McCraken. We are incredibly excited to stay tuned as this filly continues along with her three-year-old campaign this year. Impeccable training by conditioner Vann Belvoir, and a super ride by pilot Harry Hernandez.

Another Winner’s Circle Visit for Man in the Can

Multiple stakes winner Man in the Can (Can the Man – Smeauxkininthelane, by Smoke Glacken) has gotten off to a great start in 2023. The six-year-old bay Horse started off the year by running second in an allowance in February before notching his seventh career win at Oaklawn in March. Man in the Can has now earned over $488,000 in 23 lifetime starts. He was bred in Arkansas by his co-owner, JRita Young Thoroughbreds. He is also co-owned by Robert LaPenta. Congratulations to all of the connections, including trainer Ron Moquett and jockey Cristian Torres. Cheers to another great win and hopefully many more to come this year!
